

A nun event

If you were concerned that the level of moral outrage in the media has been dangerously low of late, just be patient. As soon as they hear the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence will be holding their 3rd International Conclave in Sydney in 2002, things should pick up nicely.

Sister Salomé of the Ninth Mystic Rhinestone, Sister Carmen Get It and Sister Mary Mother of Pearl (pictured) recently returned from the 2nd International Conclave in San Francisco, which coincided with the 20th anniversary of that city's Mother House (not to mention the Folsom Street Fair).

Sister Carmen informed Observatory that the 40 or so sisters in attendance greeted the Sydney decision with delight, which might not be the case in other circles. We understand the our local Sisters are positively sedate in appearance compared to their overseas counterparts, who take what you might call an enthusiastic approach to cosmetics. We recommend you book that Opera House tour now.
